Parenting Matters National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Supporting the Parents of Young Children, 2016-11-21 Decades of research have demonstrated that the parent child dyad and the environment of the family which includes all primary caregivers are at the foundation of children's well being and healthy development From birth children are learning and rely on parents and the other caregivers in their lives to protect and care for them The impact of parents may never be greater than during the earliest years of life when a child's brain is rapidly developing and when nearly all of her or his experiences are created and shaped by parents and the family environment Parents help children build and refine their knowledge and skills charting a trajectory for their health and well being during childhood and beyond The experience of parenting also impacts parents themselves For instance parenting can enrich and give focus to parents lives generate stress or calm and create any number of emotions including feelings of happiness sadness fulfillment and anger Parenting of young children today takes place in the context of significant ongoing developments These include a rapidly growing body of science on early childhood increases in funding for programs and services for families changing demographics of the U S population and greater diversity of family structure Additionally parenting is increasingly being shaped by technology and increased access to information about parenting Parenting Matters identifies parenting knowledge attitudes and practices associated with positive developmental outcomes in children ages 0-8 universal preventive and targeted strategies used in a variety of settings that have been effective with parents of young children and that support the identified knowledge attitudes and practices and barriers to and facilitators for parents use of practices that lead to healthy child outcomes as well as their participation in effective programs and services This report makes recommendations directed at an array of stakeholders for promoting the wide scale adoption of effective programs and services for parents and on areas that warrant further research to inform policy and practice It is meant to serve as a roadmap for the future of parenting policy research and practice in the United States

Investing in the Health and Well-Being of Young Adults National Research Council, Institute of Medicine, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Improving the Health, Safety, and Well-Being of Young Adults, 2015-01-27 Young adulthood ages approximately 18 to 26 is a critical period of development with long lasting implications for a person's economic security health and well being Young adults are key contributors to the nation's workforce and military services and since many are parents to the healthy development of the next generation Although millennials have received attention in the popular media in recent years young adults are too rarely treated as a distinct population in policy programs and research Instead they are often grouped with adolescents or more often with all adults Currently the nation is experiencing economic restructuring widening inequality a rapidly rising ratio of older adults and an increasingly diverse population The possible transformative effects of these features make focus on young adults especially important A systematic approach to understanding and responding to the unique circumstances and needs of today's young adults can help to pave the way to a more productive and equitable tomorrow for young adults in particular and our society at large Investing in The Health and Well Being of Young Adults describes what is meant by the term young adulthood who young adults are what they are doing and what they need This study recommends actions that nonprofit programs and federal state and local agencies can take to help young adults make a successful transition from adolescence to adulthood According to this report young adults should be considered as a separate group from adolescents and older adults Investing in The Health and Well Being of Young Adults makes the case that increased efforts to improve high school and college graduate rates and education and workforce development systems that are more closely tied to high demand economic sectors will help this age group achieve greater opportunity and success The report also discusses the health status of young adults and makes recommendations to develop evidence based practices for young adults for medical and behavioral health including preventions What happens during the young adult years has profound implications for the rest of the life course and the stability and progress of society at large depends on how any cohort of young adults fares as a whole Investing in The Health and Well Being of Young Adults will provide a roadmap to improving outcomes for this age group as they transition from adolescence to adulthood

Positive Youth Development, Mental Health, and Psychological Well-Being in Diverse Youth Nora Wiium, Laura Ferrer-Wreder, Jennifer E. Lansford, Lene Arnett Jensen, 2023-06-15 In this Research Topic our aim is to examine how personal resources related to competencies skills and self perception as well as environmental contextual and relational features of the social contexts of diverse youth directly or indirectly are important to mental health and psychological well being As previous research on young people has mainly focused on youth s weaknesses rather than their strengths our use of Positive Youth Development PYD in working with culturally diverse youth and their well being in this Research Topic is novel We invite contributions from researchers that were initially presented their papers in a meeting that was held by research partners of the Cross National Project on Positive Youth Development CN PYD and who represent an international and multidisciplinary panel of experts on PYD The CN PYD was initiated in 2014 at the University of Bergen and has an ongoing data collection that involves approximately 10 000 minority and majority youth and emerging adults ages 16 to 29 living in Africa Asia Australia Europe New Zealand and South America CN PYD uses a strengths based approach to the conceptualization of youth as resources and agentic which is in opposition to the view of the developmental period of adolescence as being a period inherently fraught with problems and risks The goal of the cross national project is to assess personal strengths and contextual resources considering how these resources come together to facilitate youth thriving and to document how young people make positive and valued contributions to themselves and others We also advance research on the complex interplay between personal and contextual resources and their connections with risk behaviors and problems in essence taking a perspective of the whole child both in terms of strengths and problems

Eastern Orthodoxy Illuminated by the Gospel Ivica StamenkoviA++, 2023-10-24 Eastern Orthodoxy illuminated by the Gospel is one of the greatest books ever written about the Orthodoxy Reading the book Eastern Orthodoxy illuminated by the Gospel is like climbing a high mountain where your visual field gets expanded with each step discovering new and exciting details and finally gives an exceptional panoramic view that evokes the strongest feelings Each new line is like a new stair leading to a highest top from where you can observe the whole Orthodoxy Orthodoxy from God s perspective Light of the glorious Gospel and Christ s teachings shines like the sun throughout this book illuminating a complete profession of faith of the Eastern Orthodox Church Sladjan Djuric Author of the book Only Scripture Serbia I have never understood why Eastern Orthodox people practice or believe certain things When I would ask I would either get silence or a very confusing and superficial answer Ivica s book made those mysterious things clear for the first time and helped me understand the essence and the roots of the Orthodox religion Without exaggeration I think this is a first class apologetic manual ever written Everyone who is called to work with Orthodox believers should have this book because it can help them understand the people who practice Eastern Orthodoxy and give them directions how to pray and preach the Gospel more efficiently 2 Corinthians 4 3 4 Ephesians 6 12 Jan Vareca Editor of a Christian e magazine The trumpet of Zion Serbia Eastern Orthodoxy has been largely unknown in the West but in the recent years there has been a surge of interest particularly among Christians of Protestant Evangelical orientation many of whom wish to find out more about this mystical expression of faith that captivates by its ancient charm and connection to the early church fathers The book Eastern Orthodoxy Illuminated by the Gospel by Ivica Stamenkovic will unlock the mysteries of Eastern Orthodoxy for the Western readers A native of Serbia a country with a strong Eastern Orthodox majority Ivica had the advantage of studying Eastern Orthodoxy at its source The product of his studies is a volume that deserves to be called nothing less than a textbook on Eastern Orthodoxy and probably the first of its kind available in the English language His clear scholarly approach leaves no stones unturned Needless to say a study such as this one has been long overdue in the West Even though scholarly the book is by no means dry and is an enjoyable read cover to cover Alex Jovanovic Pastor of Mooretown Brethren in Christ Church Sandusky Michigan USA
